

1) DOOR (Digital Online Offline Resources):

All the students are provided Digital Text Book and lectures in the form of power point presentation and the same are made available anytime-anywhere through the "LAN" and the blog "psgvplibrsry.blog.in".

2) Blood Group Detection:

The Blood Group detection camp was organized for all the students with the help of Microbiology, Chemistry and Zoology departments in consultation with the pathology lab run by the Alumni (Amritputra) voluntarily.

Also, the blood donation camps are arranged on the campus twice in a year.

3) Ek Jhad - Ek Vidyarthi (One Student One Plant Expedition):

All the students are made mandatory to plant a tree and look after it till around the year. The scheme is monitored through the Teacher-Parents (शिक्षक-पालक) and the students dose it so successfully is rewarded with one additional mark in the internal assessment.

4) Swachatta Abhiyan:

The expedition was conducted continuously throughout the year. All the students, teaching and non teaching staff plan and executed the program. The classrooms, laboratories and campus was cleaned and maintained through out the year.

The cash prize amounting Rs. 11,000 /- is distributed to the best class and best laboratories by the Alumni Association (Amritputra) of the college every year.

5) Aantarbharti:

The workshop of Modi lipi was successful arranged for five days. In that student as well as staff was actively participated. The lecture of the renowned personalities from all over the country is being arranged every year.

6) Creative Writing Workshop:

In this workshop budding writers are trained for writing and communication skills by the well known writers of the area using modern means of communications.

