34. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans

Strengths:

- Departmental activities organized to enrich programme.
- Highly qualified staff. 1 Ph.D. holder and 02 registered for Ph.D.
- The faculty of the department is actively engaged in the research, presented research papers in different national/state level seminars & conferences.
- Research publications in international / national journals.
- Department with highest student strength at FY, SY and TYBA.
- Department is recognized research centre of the affiliating university.

Weakness:

- Rural and tribal students.
- Lack of requisite number of trained Non-Teaching Staff.
- No additional teacher for postgraduate work.
- Time constraint in semester pattern is the main setback for the course.

Opportunities:

- Participation in events, seminars and Internship Programmes.
- Collaboration with reputed libraries.
- Exposure to expert perspectives and ideas through sessions and workshops.
- Coordinating with alumni with regard to placements.

Challenges:

- To provide 100% campus placement.
- To encourage students to read national newspapers, magazines and promote reading habits.
- Since a large number of students join in Junior & Senior colleges after Std. XII, it is a challenge to teach English for below average students.

Future plans of the department:

- To promote research activities.
- To adopt e-learning method.
- To start skill based certificate and diploma courses.
- To extend the knowledge of English and its application to the society.
- To organize Conference in English.
